HAVAS

Paris, 14.—The French Government has recognized the Brazilian Republic.

Berlin, 14.—The Italian Crown Prince has returned to Rome.

Rio, 14.—Marshal Gavea died yesterday.

GALVESTON.

New York, June 13th—A fire broke out last night on board the steamship Honduras, laden with a general cargo, principally oil; the vessel ultimately sank. The loss on the ship is estimated at $13000 and on the cargo $25000.

The Hague, June 13th—Telegrams from Dutch Guiana announce that a serious difficulty has arisen between the colony and Holland.

Lisbon, June 13th—News from Rica announces that the Port-Captain of Bitie committed suicide by blowing himself up, with his house, with gunpowder, subsequent to the Portuguese defeat at Bitie; his body wrapped in a Portuguese flag was found amongst the ruins.

Rome, June 13th—The authorities have confiscated as contraband a quantity of valuable objects d'art which were being sent as religious relics as presents to Archbishop Walsh.

Paris, June 13th—The Ex-Emperor of Brazil will pay a visit to the Countess Varralson in Dauphinie in July, afterwards returning to Paris where he will spend the winter.

The investigations made by the police have not disclosed any evidence against the Nihilists who were arrested here and they will probably be set at liberty; public feeling is veering round in their favour.

Berlin, June 13th—Emperor William and the Crown Prince of Italy have held a review of the troops in garrison in Spandau.

London, 13.—General Licerstoff, an agent of the Russian police, has arrived in Paris in search of more particulars about the nihilists whom he came to identify. It appears Paris is full of nihilists and arrangements are being made to make more arrests and thus suppress the conspiracy.

WEST COAST TELEGRAMS

Valparaiso, 13th—The Senate to-day began the debate on the bill for the organization, with independent elements, of the municipality. According to the Heraldo, an opposition paper, the conservative element will reenter. The decree authorizing the opening of catholic cemeteries has been signed and another will be issued shortly increasing the stipends of bishops and canons. In spite of these concessions, however, the conservative party, according to the same paper, will continue their campaign against the Cabinet. The Ferro Carril and Independiente urge the conciliatory policy to be abandoned.

Telegrams from Lima state that President Caceres has allowed Pierola to escape from prison and leave the country.

According to the latest intelligence from Bolivia, Camacho did not, when defeated, seek refuge in Peruvian territory. In many of the provinces there are still revolutionary symptoms. General Gonzalez at the head of the troops stood by the authorities, and the revolutionists, under the command of Aguirre, often having been defeated near Cochabamba, rallied but were dispersed by General Antizama, who took many prisoners. At Secuseca there were serious disturbances. The populace cried out "Viva Camacho," and the troops immediately charged.

The mail bags from La Paz were stolen. The trains are all in a state of siege. The editors of the Nacion and Imparcial have been conducted under escort to the frontier.

Lima, 13th—Pierola has escaped, it is supposed to Callao. Numerous agents have followed him.

RIVER PLATE CHANGES.

The number of important changes which have occurred since the Cabinet was recast in consequence of the late Minister Wilde's unconquerable desire to visit Jerusalem, a year and a half ago, is quite remarkable. It would be painful in the extreme to recall the financial vicissitudes, the evils of inflation, the hopes, the disappointments we have all experienced within that short compass, and we will say at once that it is neither our intention nor inclination to recapitulate this chapter in the history of Argentina. What we desire to point out is the extraordinary manner in which changes are wrought in the Plate. At first glance a change, however rapid in its occurrence or sweeping in its consequences, is not remarkable. We know the causes, we see the effects and we soon become accustomed to the change. Yet there is something unusual in a River Plate change. In Europe, for instance, every change may be directly traced to the variation of public opinion, whether in the fall of a ministry, the change of a Government, or even the alteration of a fashion. But, here on the banks of the Plate, changes are brought about in a very different way. The fall of Mr Uriburu and the consequent remodelling of the Cabinet afford an apt illustration of the assertion we advance. Every voice was raised to encourage, to applaud Mr Uriburu. The very opposition joined enthusiastically in the acclamations with which his appointment was received, and a strong breeze of popularity accompanied him to the ministerial bench. Yet he falls. This is a River Plate change. The public voice had nothing to do with it; the public mind is puzzled by it, and even the wisest amongst us cannot say what the consequences of it will be. And when we see with what rapidity this change has been brought about, we may be pardoned if we ask: what is the Argentine public? Forty thousand people who read the papers. What is the public of a European country? Millions who think, whose ideas move with regularity and discipline, and whose voice is the "suprema lex." This difference, which will always exist between new and old countries, affords fruitful material for reflexion. Age brings with it soundness of views, maturity of judgment, in a nation as in the individual. There is just enough strength of opinion here to adopt a Parisian fashion but not to devise a new one. The metamorphosed gaucho who puts on a frock-coat to hide the rural asperity of his views obeys not the impulse of his own ideas. His new attire is forced on him by the success and example of others. But it is pleasing to think that the day must come when the strength of opinion will be sufficient to change a ministry or alter the programme of a Government, as we to-day change a collar without waiting for that article of attire to wear out and drop off. We may safely lay it down as a rule that a River Plate change is not brought about by the voice of public opinion but by the force of circumstances.

But, although here in Buenos Ayres we are daily witnessing changes forced on us by circumstances which must appear mysterious to many of us, these changes are nothing when compared to those now operating in La Plata. There was very little question of opinion about the sale of the Western Railway. As a matter of fact public opinion was opposed to that measure, however much it may suit provincial interests. Built upon hopes, the gorgeous capital of the Province develops amid disappointments, and now we see before the La Plata Legislature a bill which reveals a startling change. An honorable deputy, who has no doubt arrived at the conclusion that the costly emptiness of magnificence may be turned to some account, has applied all the inventive power of his mind to discover some use for the palatial public edifices which cover entire blocks of the provincial capital. He has devised a bill whereby one of these costly monuments shall be granted to any person or company who will start a bank with a capital of 10 million dollars gold. He proposes that tenders should be called and furthermore, by offering five blocks of land on the port and a premium on the shares, he expects to awaken competition. There is a redeeming touch of patriotism about the project which, without exposing the magnificence of La Plata to the indignity of an auction, calls nevertheless for bids. The patriotic project bears the genuine stamp of a River Plate change. The public voice has not clamored for this change, which marks a sorrowful fall from the pinnacle of the idealistic to the hard ground of reality. But to divest a monumental palace of its official splendor, to take from its walls the portraits of gathered patriots, and from its gates the arms of the Queen Province, to empty the oaken shelves of their valuable records of history and remove the inspiring mate-cup from its costly niche, to make a present of, to throw away, the chairs upon which magnates have sat and pondered on the necessity of reforming and selling out, to abandon the carved stands which so oft received the dripping umbrella of a burning patriot or the soft hat that covered the hard head of a local potentate, to leave for a teller the desk upon which decrees, as yet unjudged by history, have been signed, and consign to the profane hands of a clerk the inkstands which had supplied so many brilliant ideas quickened into life by the touch of the political pen, to abandon all this magnificence perfumed with the recollections of faded prosperity, and make room, not for an independent newspaper, nor a barracks, but for a bank! there's the pity of it. As if we had not had enough of bank ushered into existence with state caresses and fulsome pampering! Yes; there is a River Plate change there. We might ruminate for a month on it we become accustomed to it in a minute.

LONDON LETTER.

POLITICAL.

(From our Own Correspondent)

May 17th.

General Caprivi, Count Moltke and Herr Eugen Richter have severally addressed the German Reichstag on the subject of the fresh demands of the Government on account of military expenditure. The Chancellor's speech was principally directed to the general situation of Imperial affairs, home, foreign and colonial. He desired to show that nothing had changed in the position of affairs, and that the Emperor pursued his policy of maintaining peace in Europe, of bettering the condition of the working classes, and of following a safe colonial policy in Africa without too much "bullet and Bible" work, trenching on the spheres of other nations, or, as General Caprivi said, attempting to rival the experience and energy of the English as colonists. General Moltke repeated his former expressions of horror at the thought of a European war, which might mean a ten or a thirty years' war, as the great nations were so well prepared it was no longer a question of reducing one or other to terms in a campaign. "Woe to him who casts the brand amongst the powder barrels," he observed. Herr Richter, in an admirable speech, did not oppose the demands of the Government, but deferred the questions he had to ask in respect to financial and industrial matters until the Bill was in Committee. The natural misgivings of the Liberal leader were too well answered by Count Moltke when he said that "the sword had been confined to the scabbard by the sword, and that nothing but Germany's preparations for war and alliances had prevented war, which for the last ten years had hung over Europe like the sword of Damocles; and that no financial or industrial situation would be of value, however good, if the nation were unable to protect itself against invasion. The chief interest of the discussion in the German Reichstag lay in the fact that not only were the debates free, but all sides were polite to one another in the absence of the bullying and contemptuous bearing of the now fallen ex-chancellor, whose growls of disappointed ambition are becoming less and less audible. He seems to be reserving his revenge for his memoirs. He is closeted with literary coadjutors.

General Verdy de Vernois, the new war minister's speech left the impression that the political horizon in Europe was not so unclouded as some imagined, and it must be remarked that Mr. Goschen in his budget speech in the English House of Commons left a similar impression with those who chose to read between the lines. On the other hand we are informed that the Czar has, since the fall of his enemy Bismarck, suddenly changed his policy in respect to the French Republic and intends to support the military monarchies of Central Europe. This may mean an overwhelming alliance in favour of peace in the West or it may mean a conspiracy of Emperors to impose a monarchical government on France and Switzerland, in which conspiracy Lord Salisbury might be asked to join and might not say nay. It would only be part of the roguery of his policy as visible in the pending question of "compensation to the publicans for licenses cancelled," "compensation to Irish landlords," "compensation to tithe owners," compensation all round, as in his supposed surrender of British interests in Africa to Germany in return for favours to be received in the way of actively promoting monarchical interests in Europe and suppressing all attempts against property. Mr. Ritchie let the cat out of the bag when in reply to a deputation remonstrating against compensation to brewers and retailers of intoxicants he said "the principle of compensation must be upheld." It is Lord Salisbury who speaks through the mouths of his ministers, who are otherwise rather embarrassed with so many compensatory clauses in their several bills. Lord Salisbury, as Lord Randolph Churchill once said, "is always in a funk." He is in a perpetual funk at the foreign office and dreams at night of black bands of socialists surrounding the manor of Hatfield. The end of his policy, and roguery, may be that he will disgust the middle class Liberals in England who act as a buffer against the common domestic enemy he dreads more than others of his order, because he knows more and perhaps intellectually sympathises with the new departure in political economy—and by feeding German ambition in Central Africa he may create eventually an alliance between France and Germany whilst Russia works her will in the East. The summer will not pass before Lord Salisbury will have to come out from behind his slaves in the foreground, the Balfours, and Smiths and Ritchies and Goschens, and prove if he be of iron, or of wood painted to look like iron. He is unlike any preceding English prime minister. No one sees him or hears of him except at Royal Academy or Guildhall banquets, when he condescends to joke and say as little as possible. This means either roguery or inability. Roguery in a measure it is; and I marvel at the blindness and subservience of the English people and press who allow this plotter against human progress to stave off real reforms with sham concessions until the position of affairs in Europe is such that home reforms will be impossible. It is an old Tory dodge; but one which has ultimately ended in revolution rather than in reform.

For the present Lord Salisbury thinks that Stanley will amuse us. But Stanley is rather an awkward customer to be put forward as a clown or jester. His speeches at Guildhall and in other public places are getting hotter and hotter against the rich Lancashire quakers and peace-mongers whom he reminds are themselves instigators of and accessories to the slave trade inasmuch as they use ivory handled hair brushes, every ounce of ivory being now stained with the blood and sweat of African slaves. He inveighs against the people and Government of England for rewarding his lieutenants with empty compliments and vain feastings, and almost threatens to offer his own services to Germany, a country which can boast of something like a Government and knows how to pursue its interests in Africa, where he warns us we are being hoodwinked and forestalled. The Pall Mall Gazette has lost Mr. Stead, who is busy making his fortune with the Review of Reviews, now his sole property, but the old evening paper keeps up its tradition by sounding the alarm in regard to Lord Salisbury's concessions to Germany. Our Grand Vizier did condescend last night to give explanations. He denounced, as a pure fabrication, a paragraph from a German newspaper which had appeared in the Morning Post and other London journals representing that Germany had demanded England's adherence to the Triple Alliance and that on this being refused the relations between the two countries were estranged upon the accession of William II. to the German throne. Lord Salisbury in replying to questions concerning British and German politics in East Africa said that Sir Percy Anderson, an English expert, was now in Berlin arranging with a German expert the question of geographical boundaries, and after their report was submitted to their respective Governments he had no doubt that all questions in Africa would be settled satisfactorily to the two countries, between which the most cordial relations existed.

The Pall Mall Gazette returns to the charge this evening and fails to find in the general terms of the answers made by Lord Salisbury himself and his ministerial eunuchs in the Commons any distinct denial of its own allegation that provinces in Africa now painted on the map red were by Lord Salisbury's concessions to be painted Prussian Blue.

STANLEY'S MARRIAGE.

The Times says:—We understand that Mr. H. M. Stanley is to be married to Miss Dorothy Tennant, of Richmond Terrace, Whitehall, daughter of the late Mr. Charles Tennant, a lady well known to the public by her clever pictures at the Royal Academy and other galleries. The marriage will probably take place early in July.

UNA NOCHE EN LORETA.

Zarzuela in 3 acts by Francis J. Hargreaves.

Under this simple and unpretentious heading we are promised a work of literary and artistic merit that, whilst shedding lustre on Argentine Art and genius, may even save from premature decay the best and most unique school of the grand old Spanish stage.

In years gone bye the Zarzuela was a standing institution here, and it is not too much to say that the gifted artists from Madrid or Barcelona who, at the bidding of the late Don. Miguel Plaza Montero strutted their short hour on the boards of the dear old Victoria Theatre 30 years ago, had much to do in developing if not positively generating that most refining of all tastes—music. This and the talent for languages we hold to be the chief natural gifts of the Argentine people. Happy should they be in the possession of two such useful and enabling accomplishments and well should our rulers look to their preservation and development in the rising generation. How different should the effects on our national character have been through the introduction of the wretched French "Cafe Chantant" system with its demoralising "can-can" accompaniment! Long may the harmless merry zarzuela flourish amongst us: its charming catch songs and sweet enlivering music.

The superior attractions of the Italian Opera for fashionable folks have all but crushed out its humbler rival, whose genuine artistic merits yet stand unequalled in the opinion of many of the best critics. Take for instance "Los Madgiares," "Los diamantes de la corona" or any other of the chief classic pieces, than which nothing finer was ever placed on the stage of any country. In the absence of the "Ibretas," not yet printed, it is impossible to pronounce judgment on this latest effort of our talented young countryman's musical genius, but taking his former efforts and high professional standing into account we may fairly look for a rare treat in his treatment of Sr. Menchaco's new kind of novel. Well may Mr. Hargreaves claim the honour to be considered the Argentine Mozart, and well may our readers feel proud of the British blood that courses through his veins impelling him to great and noble deeds at the very moment that the land of his birth is steeped in such gloomy despondency. He was only 20 days in writing the music overture, choruses and, last not least, the charming tenor and baritone solos.

Who that has had his sisters or cousins educated in any of the Loretto convents does not know that charming song:

"I love thee, Loretto, my own happy home,
And from thy dear precincts I ne'er wish to roam."

Who that has married a Dalkey or Rathfarnham girl but hears, day and night, these all-familiar, never-tiring strains? Has Mr Hargreaves translated these impassioned outpourings of the cloistered schoolgirl, or is the trip to Loretto a mere ramble through Venado Tuerto and the adjoining camps, in which case the bleating of lambs and bellowing of cattle would be more 'apropos'. Santiago Estrada's best work was "Una Mañana en el Campo", and perhaps Sr. Menchaca's effort is of the same bucolic nature.

Whatever the plot may be, we back the Argentine Mozart, Mr. Hargreaves, to throw over it the full lustre of his bright genius, claiming for him from our friends and countrymen throughout the Republic that sympathy and support to which his talents and labours fairly entitle him.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

May 10th.

The Crédit Foncier incident ought never to have been brought before the Chamber of Deputies; the subject was in a sense sprung upon the House, and the latter, naturally declining all responsibility, recommended the whole subject to the Minister of Finance, M. Rouvier, whose province it is to watch over that and kindred financial societies, to see that they keep on healthy lines, although the State is in no way responsible for their errors or failures.

The Governor of the Crédit Foucier is M. Christophle, and the Vice-Governor M. Léveque; both are Deputies, honorable and able men, and stalwart Republicans of the moderate type. Since some time their relations became foggy and frigid. Ultimately, about five weeks ago, M. Léveque drew the attention of the Minister of Finance to certain deviations from the statutes of the Credit Foucier on the part of M. Christophle, and of his tendencies to govern without consulting the Council. The Minister—here was the capital error—instead of quietly exercising his right of deputing representatives to examine the precise allegations, allowed the matter to slide. This led to the resignation of M. Leveque, a drop of 70 fr. in the shares and the dragging of the dispute before the public, who naturally became as much astonished as frightened at any charge at all of irregularity being made against one of the soundest societies in the country, having 3½ milliards fr., and handling a business vaster than that of the Bank of France itself. But since the smash of the Comptoir d'Escompte and the crash of the Copper Corner, people are very easily alarmed when black rumours circulate about a stock in which they have a deep stake.

The debate ended by the Government undertaking to institute an inquiry, and that has commenced. M. Leveque may unintentionally have over-rated the irregularities, but at all events, the sub governor of such a bank, and a man of standing cannot be exactly an idiot, and when he stakes his reputation and situation on a charge, prudent people, "en attendant," shake their heads.

The Credit Foncier Society could never come to grief, for all its capital and liabilities are invested in and secured by advances on real property. It is the biggest building society on earth, it has the most solid of credits in the country: it borrows by this confidence, money at a low rate of interest and lends it out at a fractional higher rate, to erect houses, mills, out-offices, reclaim lands &c. on stringent conditions, and ever as a first mortgage. When it asks for a few hundred millions of francs the loan is covered thirty times over and its shares are held by all classes of society, the interest in the scrip being the revenue for thousands of families. After the Public Funds, no scrip is viewed as more solid; it takes precedence over municipal stock. A whisper that anything was wrong about the Credit Foncier would run down its shares, and shake its reputation of virgin confidence, but the capital could never, as observed, be all lost, as the material guarantee exists. There is no reason to conclude that the Society was dabbling either with Panama or playing with any contemplated Congo Trading Co., to outrival the chartered Africa companies of John Bull.

The trial of the old Comptoir d'Escompte and of their co-corner men of the Copper bubble is taking place. The revelations are very painful. The head of the three head centres inculpated was some twenty years ago a bankrupt, but he compounded on being granted a reduction of 60 per cent on his liabilities. Now that man and his co-accused were at one time the representatives of liabilities for 900 million francs; the ex-directors had even involved the Comptoir in liabilities for five times the amount of its paid-up capital. And the Public Prosecutor stated that, as directors, they were bound to give first-class guarantees, yet only supplied those of a third or fourth rate order. Surveillance was terribly lax; hence the ruin of thousands of middle-class families.

The prisoners are indicted for conspiracy to monopolize all the copper of the world, and so oppress and injure honest 'industriels"; of making a copper "famine pacte" akin to that of grain under Louis XV. Also of preparing false balance sheets of their companies and paying fictitious dividends. They can be imprisoned for five years, mulcted in a fine of 3,000 francs, and of course all their property will be confiscated to meet an unrecovered deficit of 67 million francs.

The Commission deputed last October by the liquidator of the Panama Canal Company to examine the whole scheme and to send delegates to view the works and see what was best to be done, has sent in its report. The document is anything but satisfactory or hopfeul, and begs facts where such ought to be demonstrated. It cannot state whether the canal could be completed in 1899, but affirms that is not possible for 1893 —when the concession by the Columbian Government will expire.

The level system canal from ocean to ocean must not be thought of; the lock-plan alone is practicable. To complete the big ditch in this latter sense will require six hundred million francs in round numbers, and as much as nine hundred million francs, if the existing plant be not taken over.

In this sum to be found, no estimate is made for the expenses of bringing out the loan. Subscribers to any new loan will not be willing to lie out of interest till the canal commences to bring in receipts; they will expect at least six per cent out of the capital, that is, out of their own money, till the project brings in revenue; and for every one million francs to be raised, that will represent an annual charge of sixty thousand francs. The commissioners estimate the plant and rolling stock—though stationary since a long time—at four hundred and fifty million francs, and this value is only contingent on the plant being utilised by a new financial combination. Otherwise, it will have no commercial value. The shareholders who have then invested, up to the present, one thousand five hundred million francs, that may dissolve into nothing at all.

M. de Lesseps broke down by hugging the error that the Suez and Panama canals were "ex equo" in point of construction, although there were no redoubtable engineering difficulties to encounter in the case of Suez, there was no Cordillera to bore, no Chagres river to tame. The engineers have, too, their share of Suez on the brain, when they commence to budget-up the "probable" savings of Panama. The basis of their arithmetic is the assumption that as rich a traffic feeding region exists at Panama as at Suez, and begging their premises, which are any thing but a fact, they conclude that Panama will have the same tonnage, and not only the same tonnage, but will be able to fix the transit rate at fr. 12½ the ton, that for Suez being but 10 fr.! Such are the fallacies or which, the commissioners conclude, the Panama Canal can be converted into a big Bonanza. Q. E. D. No person believes a word of the fortune telling; and the report has been received with a heavy drop in the already well—dropped shares of the moribund folly. The shares are at 38 fr. The Canal may be made some day; likely when nations shall have voted that other Will o'the Wisp formula for Universal Labor; eight hours work, eight hours play, and eight hours sleep, and eight shillings per day.

The prospect of an arrangement between Egypt (England) and France, on the Debt converaion has been taken up in a more commendable spirit by Mr. Ribot than by any of his predecessors at the Foreign Office. He has commenced by not allowing himself to be ear-wigged by a few "faddists," who hold, concede nothing, no matter how rational, till England fixes the day for evacuating the "Nile Valley." The French bond-holders do not subscribe to this doctrine, well-knowing that it is the presence of England which secures the payment of their coupons, and upholds the value of Egyptian Stock, once near Zero, but now at 97. Practical French men on the other hand say, why raise the demand for the English army going away, when we know they will only do so when they please, and that we have not the remotest intention to force them to retire?

The question it certainly entering upon a new phrase, and not one favourable for France, that is for Algeria. England is negotiating with Turkey to regulate the conditions of the Egyptian evacuation, which will stipulate clearly her toll right to return when events, in her eyes, demand it, and in conjunction with, or without the Turkish troops. To bring the latter close to Algeria was a night-mare prospect ever before the eye of Gambetta. But "Tu l'as voulu Georges Dandin." Further even before England quits Alexandria, she will, as a return compliment, exact from France when she intends to quit Tunisia; the Powers, save Italy, have recognized to France the right to "protect" the Bey, to Egyptianize his realm, but not to annex it. Better let sleeping dogs lie. France will thus be "cornered" on she evacuation of Tunisia. If she says the will keep the territory, count upon Italy at once "protecting" Tripolitania. Then will come the tug of war. No wonder the German Emperor wants more guns to maintain peace.

Railway Items.

The Western Railway will be delivered in a few days, and we note that the difficulty to which we alluded the other day about the landowners will be easily overcome, as the La Plata Government is desirous of affording every facility. Mr H. G. Anderson, who represents the syndicate, had an interview yesterday with Governor Paz, in regard to the difficulty as well as to the details of the delivery.

It is quite evident the Government has no intention of entertaining Messrs Clark and Sandford's petition for the resumption of negotiations for the purchase of the Andine Railway. Yesterday the Minister approved the estimates of that line as drawn up by Dr. Araoz.

The Lacroze tramway has to pay up $3,160 for injuring a thoroughbred mare belonging to Mr. E. Durand. The Lacroze, it is true, cannot be charged with reckless driving, but sometimes the tram-drivers forget to blow the horn at the crossings, and accidents, of course, occur.

In regard to the quarrel mentioned by us yesterday, between the tramway companies and the city improvement works, we may state that the conditions for allowing a tramway company to pass through a turn-up street are:—(1) The companies to throw boards across the ditches opened. (2) To have a sufficient number of "peones" to lift or replace the boards, as the case may be, and remove from between the rails the earth thrown up. (3) To close the streets by means of ropes, where such bridges are used, and light the street at night. (4) The companies to pay 6 dollars per bridge to the contractors.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Hanging fire again yesterday, and the impression that our London friends will let the loan alone was unpleasantly prevalent. The whole community has now got loan on the brain, and even women and children ask daily "Is the loan done?" as they have, somehow, got into their heads that its negotiation would bring about a fall in the price of bonnets and "caramelos." Most people are so weary of this eternal loan talk that they say of it what was said of Mr. Goschen's tea and currants. At a late hour last night the news from the Government House was that the loan was done.

Our rheumatic subscribers were all groaning dismally yesterday, predicting a change of weather, a deluge of rain, and a black frost to follow. Mr. Benelische's rheumatic remedy was in great demand.

The Concert for the Belgrano Anglican Church fund which is now being organised by the Rev. Mr. Luckman is to be held on Wednesday, June 25th, and promises to be one of the most successful of the season. In the programme are the names of the following well-known amateurs and artistes: Miss Lumb, Madame Donant, Miss Margaret Webster—Sr. Narici, Sr. Galvani. Those, who possess tickets for the postponed concert are requested to send them to St. John's Church where they can be changed. Tickets for the concert may be had on application to the Clergy of St. John's and at all the principal English libraries.

By a mistake in the notice sent to us we announced the Belgrano Anglican evensong at 8. If should be 5 in the afternoon. The celebration is now half an hour later, namely at half past eight in the morning.

We received yesterday a visit and a sample of sherry from the agent of Messrs. Gonzalez, Byass and Co., the great firm in Jerez de la Fronters, and we must candidly confess the sherry was so good that we forgot all about the crisis, although its golden hue was calculated to awaken sorrowful thoughts. The agent for the great house is Mr. R. Felix Ramos Munoz, formerly manager of the Provincial bank in Patagones. Mr. Munoz, whose depot is in Calle Reconquista 387, is almost an Englishman, having learned the language from a well-known London lawyer, who is at present exploring the South, and writing a book about the Far South. We recommend both the sherry and the book, when it appears. The sherry is so good that we consider it even a better cure than dry champagne for influenza, the donna, or the laughing sickness. The popular agent is a descendant of the happy man of whom the poet wrote in centuries gone bye—"Tu felix Ramos nubes," whilst others wage war over the loan and gold premium.

The sixth meeting of the Scotch Church Young Men's Society took place in the school room on Thursday evening, Mr. R. Goodfellow in the chair. Mr. Cairns read a very interesting paper on "Anglo-Argentines and Argentine Politics." He eloquently supported the view that Anglo-Argentines should take an active part in the politics of their native land. He condemned the contrary course by sons of foreigners as having led to the present oligarchy. He said Anglo-Argentines were specially fitted to take a ruling influence in the affairs of the country, and concluded by hoping that the day was not far distant when they would do so. In the discussion Messrs. Cameron, Hayward, Grant and others took part, and all agreed with the opinions expressed by the lecturer, which were carried "nem con" and the meeting dispersed.

Oh! dear. Oh! dear. Another bank, in Calle Florida, was embargoed yesterday.

Miss Kuhe's concert for the German Hospital will come off on Wednesday evening in the Operal rooms. The programme is magnificent, and the tickets are only $3 each.

The monetary unpleasantness in the Provincial Bank is said to amount to $400,0000, rather a stiff business.

Ex-Dictator Latorre was married last night in San Nicolas church to Señora Berruti. Canon O'Gorman tied the nuptial knot.

We were favoured yesterday with a copy of a new illustrated magazine, El Pasatiempo. It is very nicely got up, and the reading matter is of a high class.

Latest advices from Mr. Cleary, who is going to give us Gilbert and Sullivan's Opera this winter at the National Theatre, are most promising. The company, which consists entirely of London artists, is already completely organised and will leave for the Plate early in July. Mr. Richard Durant, for many years scenic artist for the Princess Theatre, London, and one of the first in his profession, will arrive here before the company and paint entirely new sets of scenery for the operas. This promises delightful stage effects—never yet seen in this country. We understand that the subscription list here is progressing rapidly, many stalls and boxes being already booked.

We received yesterday a batch of the Diario Oficial of Paraguay. Any subscriber interested in that fine but slightly hard-up country can have them if he so desire.

We have to thank Mr. William Kraft of 1124 Calle Cuyo for sending us a copy of the "dictamen" of the Attorney-General, Dr. Costa, on "Los Rios y sus Riberas." The book is printed on "papier de luxe" in a manner that does great credit to Mr. Kraft's firm, but does not speak much for Government's idea of what economy should mean in these hard times. As for the matter, it is of very great interest and one of the most exhaustive of the many opinions of the chief law adviser of the Republic.

Stanley's marriage is one of the chief items of news by the John Elder. Our London correspondent refers to the interesting subject. The question now is, will the great explorer be allowed to visit Africa again? "Quien sabe?"

The sailing of the Matteo Bruzzo had to be postponed yesterday, owing to the inclement weather. She will leave tomorrow. This is a chance for merchants to write by a fast steamer all the news of last week, with to-day thrown in.

The Club Internacional is now training a number of dogs for races that will take place shortly. This is not exactly a very high class of sport, but will probably amuse the mass of the public, which has as much idea of sport as the man in the moon. Gragera, the dog man, protests against this kind of racing and threatens to turn up with his big stick and make things unpleasant for everybody concerned.

A morning colleague hints that the new Finance Minister will make a clean breast of it about the Free Bank muddle on Tuesday in the Senate. This will be a sensation indeed. Anything clean in connection with the F. B.'s will be a striking "novedad."

Arrests in the Custom House and the fiscal deposits generally are getting rather lively. Mr. Camelino, the "pro tem" Administrator, baits his hooks so skilfully that a dozen peons in different deposits were caught in the act of stealing goods on Friday, and a few more yesterday. It is no use netting these small fish. What is wanted is to catch, name, and punish the mercantile firms who bribe the employees to forget their duty.

The latest unpleasant banking news is that the "Free" in Entre Rios, which was thought to be amongst the very few state Banks of the country squarely managed, is now in hot water, because the Government owes it 6½ millions! This is the old shameful abuse over again. The country will not get thoroughly on its legs again till every State Bank in it is shut up, and the banking business of the Interior is left in private hands.

Our Montevidean neighbours do not, unfortunately, agree with Dr. Lopez as to the advantages conferred by Latin classics on those who study them. A Bill is before the Chamb rs to turn Latin out of the University, but the glorious old tongue has President Herrera for a friend, and it is expected that the Bill will be defeated.

A novel attempt to obtain work was made recently in New York. A young fellow named Fred Roberts fastened the following inscription round his neck, and promenaded in the Broadway:—"I am not Bret Harte, Bill Nye, or Berry Wall, nor am I George Francis Train or Nelly Bly's brother. I am simply a married man, a railroad employee (by request), who has used every means to find employment. I am an earnest worker, and willing to go at anything. Please do not stare at me, as I am very modest.—Yours truly. The Sandwich." The effort, however, only secured his arrest for disorderly conduct.

Private advices from Rome say that Dr. Mariano Soler is likely to be the new Bishop of Montevideo.

The Rosarinos are in high spirits at the report of the Scientific Commission to the effect that the discharge of the sewage of their town into the Parana would be dangerous for public health. It is to be hoped that the National Government will now act on this and put an end to the vexed question.

Dr. Burmeister, the venerable Director of the National Museum, sailed yesterday for Europe. We wish him a very pleasant voyage, and lots of enjoyment in that congenial spot the ruins of Pompeii, some of which he intends to bring back with him. Ruins and fur coats are wonderfully cheap in Italy.

We wonder if the Mormons have got such civilizing things as Cedulas and Centros Agricolas. Whether they have or not, they appear to understand the land-booming business pretty well. The New York World says:—"Real estate booms are great coquettes. One is now flirting with the gay and gynophilous Mormons of Salt Lake City. Property has suddenly advanced 1,200 to 1,500 per cent in value. Lots which were worth $5,000 three years ago now bring $85,000 and $90,000. The Mormons regard Zion's soil as sacred, and they have all been counselled not to sell their property: but the saints can no more resist the allurements of this boom than they can pass a pretty woman without wishing for a new wife, and they are selling out rapidly.

Mr. Arnold Blanch had his gold watch and chain snapped from him by a thief in Calle Belgrano on Friday, but an unus

La venta se hará por lotes de 10,000 hectareas o sean 4 leguas kilometricas.
En cuanto a la bondad de los campos podemos asegurar que son excelentes y de lo mejor de todo la Pampa Central: fueron elejidos por el finado Señor Don Antonio Camacares, que era competentisimo en la materia. Para mejor inteligencia de los interesados, podemos ofrecerles un informe municioso de cada lote, que obra en nuestra poder.
Su ubicacion tan proxima á Bahia Blanca, puerto importantisimo, es una ventaja que no debe perderse de vista.

ON 'CHANGE.

PRICE OF GOLD TO-DAY.
First Ring..... 243.00

Saturday, June 14th.

"Leaning on the loan." The market again opened this morning with brokers grasping at uncertainties and gold over from yesterday. The flames of speculation appear to be rapidly extending, and the sales and purchases of gold on time to-day were greater than on any previous day during the week. With excusable alarm the brokers and merchants see that the negotiation of the London loan for Montevideo has led to no improvement whatever in that market, and many begin to think that should the difficulties that at present surround the loan for this Republic be removed, the market here would shew the same result as that of Montevideo. Telegrams from London to-day were delayed, and there seems to be an interruption somewhere; but those houses here who are in touch with the European markets dislike the fact that the launching of the new Trust Bank has been delayed.

Great importance is attached to the debate in the Senate on Monday or Tuesday on the Del Valle motion respecting the clandestine issues. The light is at last about to be thrown on all this business, and the new Minister of Hacienda is preparing a measure which will correct this abuse and lead to a sound currency reform. That we are on the eve of great changes none can doubt; the situation is so critical that it calls for the most strenuous efforts on the part of the Government. Dr. Garcia is a man of acknowledged ability, and although his proposed reforms may lead to great changes, still if they rescue the market from leaning on a loan that probably never will be done, we shall all have reason to rejoice at his taking office.

Business at the first hour opened with such a heavy supply of gold on offer that it was quite apparent that not only was there no bearish "descubierto

The s.s. Santa Fe, Chargeurs Reunis line, anchored in port to-day with 420 passengers and large cargo.

The business of the second hour was most important, and as gold took a header downwards, due to fresh rumors of the loan being done, stocks all woke up and were in great demand. National Bank shares left off firm at 170 for cash and the end of the month, and 178 for the end of August, Catalinas at 39 cash and 39.50 for the end of the month, and Constructors at 33 for Monday. A few lots of Bolsa bank were marked done at 42, Cedulas all round were firm, especially the National series, which showed a marked advance. With regard to gold, brokers reported it down to 235 and freely offered at 236. We could hear of no telegrams received about the loan, although it was reported done.

"Couforme!" Nothing more than this short and sympathetic word is needed to quiet the anxieties of all—that is to close the loan. On this slender thread the fortunes of a whole market hang! Why not cable at once to the London bankers—"conforme!" Why touch the tender chords of local "amour propre" when ten millions sterling are in question! What matters if to-day's condit ons are not as fair as those offered yesterday, since ten millions are in question! Why trepidate on the verge of success, because national dignity suffers a fraction in quotation at the bid of Lombard-Street money lenders? We are not in a position to dictate—no, we must bow with a protest and with a mental reservation for the future. There is no use of crying over spilt milk. The time for recriminations is gone bye! Verily, Dr. Garcia, there is no help for it—aye, what cannot be helped must be borne! Face to face with ten millions sterling or one hundred millions of paper money, one extreme must be chosen by all means the former, though it be a bitter pill, much more bitter than that tendered to the patient seven days ago. "Quand on n'a pas ce qu'on aime, Mr. Garcia, il faut aimer ce qu'on a—sans malice?" We beg pardon, for the French, especially as Dr. Garcia reads English quite as well as French.

"Conforme!" Wired across the Atlantic, this little word suffices to seal the deed of the loan! Wayward bankers and capricious presidents, grasping loan-mongers and aspiring finance ministers, greedy lenders and grovelling borrowers, all will abide by the magic word! Conditions! Who thinks of them when on a financial scaffold or in the pillory of credit? Fudge! By all means cable the cabalistic word, and let us have an end of it, for the sooner the dilemma is solved the better. Alexander did not ponder much to cut the Gordian knot, nor does Dr Garcia need a pillow to sleep over the "To be or not to be" of his financial interregnum—for interregnum it must be unless he wires "conforme." The conditions! Who cares as long as the gold comes and saves us in this our momentary extremity. "Conforme!" Aye, it was wrung from an unwilling sovereign when he signed the Habeas Corpus; now it is wrung to confer a loan under conditions that imply somewhat safer and more reliable financial government for the future. Last night we heard from the Finance Office, at a late hour, that the Minister's ultimatum had been received in London and that the London bankers had abided by the Ministerial 'conforme.' Thus the loan is done—no, nearly done, for it must go to Congress where the independant judgment of the legislature will sit on the equity of the Ministerial message. But Congress will exclaim, like the Minister, "Conforme!"

Yes, the loan is done, irrevocably done, and the country may thank Dr. Garcia for overlooking personal scruples in the interests of the country. It is idle to hide the fact that the conditions offered to Mr. Uriburu were less onerous than those offered to his successor. But herein Dr. Garcia is not to blame; he is the victim of circumstances and must rue them. But this much we wish to say, not that we disregard public opinion, or wish to underrate its infallible dictum, that of all the finance ministers in the last five years, none can lay claim to greater sympathy than Dr Garcia for none has taken over the portfolio under more critical circumstances.

The Minister of Finance was engaged until a late hour in drawing up the loan contract and will attend to business to-morrow in the Government House to finish that transcendental document. When completed, Minister Garcia will submit it to Congress where, it is to be hoped, it will pass by a sweeping majority. As far as we know, the loan is for ten million sterling, half the amount payable cash and the remainder at the option of the bankers. As we stated above the conditions are of no consequence, for we may remain assured that the London bankers will merely ask for guarantees of good financial government, and these Minister Garcia must give and the country will applaud.

Now that the loan is done, none need fear that the sky will fall. Gold, no doubt, will fall, may tumble twenty points or more, but let it be remembered that in this market everything is discounted, especially a big loan. But for this loan business gold would be over 300 to-day! But for Uriburu's resignation gold would be under 200 to-day! Such is Bolsa life, and we would not be surprised if on the strength of the loan gold were to jump up several points on Monday. Meantime, we congratulate Minister Garcia on the success of the loan, for it precludes, at least for the next six months, the dismal necessity of resorting to more paper issues and more Cedulas.

The returns of the Custom House to-day amounted to forty-two thousand dollars. This is a very dismal figure, indeed.

Both the Riachuelo Works Committee and the Department of Engineers have reported favorably on the concession requested by Messrs McPhail, Ortiz Basualdo and Company, to construct three tunnels under the Riachuelo, in the vicinity of the Central Produce Market, of the Barracas anchorage, and of the Southern Ry. The cost of the tunnels is estimated at 5000,000 dollars gold, an enormous figure for such a small work.

The Procurador de Tesoro has advised the National Executive to approve the reforms in the charter of the Compañia Argentina del Riachuelo.

The Veloce liner Vittoria arrived in Montevideo to-day with twenty one cabin and two hundred and fifty steerage passengers, also nine hundred tons of cargo.

The Magdalena has arrived in Montevideo as announced by Montevidean telegram, and stocks in the Mount seemed very flat, judging by the quotations.

The National Bank negotiated some time ago with Messrs. Lucas Gonzalez and Co. a loan for fifteen millions gold, upon which the said gentlemen have now asked the bank to pay the service. These gentlemen have been paid £14,064, by the Exchequer to cover the service on the Central Northern Extensions Loan.

Mr. Cast llo, on behalf of the Muelles de Punta Lara, applied to Government last week for authority to build wharves at Punta Lara and dredge a channel. The company hold eighty three million metres of property in that district. The Revenue Office has reported favorably on the application.

At the meeting held yesterday by the directorate of the Hypothecary Bank, the following appointments were made:—

President—Jose Toso.

Vice-presidents—Josue Moreno (1) and General L. M. Campos (2).

Valuation Committee—J. Moreno, J. M. Ortiz de Rozas, Angel Teso.

Committee for Transfers—M. Fernandez, T. Granel and Carlos Casares.

Accounts' Committee—S. G. Uriburu, J. M. Ortiz de Rozas and T. Granel.

"Llavero"—S. G. Uriburu.

The next meeting of the board is fixed for Thursday next.

The meeting of the Cia. Nacional de Credito of Montevideo was a most stormy one, and it was only by sheer force of numbers that the board of directors was able to hold its own and to pass a resolution for the issue of four million bonds bearing 7 o/o interest. The opposition offered the most strenuous resistance to the measure. The voting for the new board resulted in the following list being elected:—Messrs. Rufino Gurmendez, E. Balparda and Piñeyrua, J. A. Ferreira, E. Casey and E. Thode; substitutes, R. Carrick, Dr. J. C. Blanco, J. Olivera, Aurelio Fynn and E. Stewart. Accounts' Committee, D. Saracha ga and A. Rey.

Mr. F. S. Cibils purchased at auction the German lugger Moeve as she stands for 3600 gold dols.

Advices from Paraguay announce exports rather dull, except in specie, the latter during the week mounting up to 31-190 dols. Tobacco has risen in price owing to increased demand.

The Chilian frigate of war Angamos has been lost off the Vallenar coast, through striking on a hidden reef not marked on the charts. All hands were saved, as well as a large portion of the war material and provisions. The captain, in giving his account of the accident, deplores the almost total ignorance prevailing amongst mariners of this treacherous coast, and recommends that a special survey be made.

On Thursday afternoon, the 30th ult., when a few miles beyond Chico Light Vessel, a mishap occurred to the U. S. Warship Tallapoosa, the Rock Shaft snapping, completely disabling the engines of the ship. Sail was set, such as it was, and an effort made to reach port under canvas. Ensenada was about eighteen miles away, Colonia twenty and Buenos Ayres about thirty. On Friday afternoon a tug offered to tow the vessel to the Boca for one hundred and fifty pounds (£150) but as the Tallopoosa had six months stores on board and did not care to buy the tug the offer was naturally refused. She had sailed eight miles during the twenty four hours and it was only a question of time when she should arrive. The next day she made six more and all were satisfied, and finally on the morning of the fourth day she reached the Outer Roads of Buenos Ayres. From here a tug came to her assistance, and after eleven hours work got her just eight miles nearer Buenos Ayres.

A cattle purchaser who has just returned from the far south of the province reports that the estancieros are greatly afflicted owing to the want of rain and severe frosts; the prices of live stock are quoted as follows; mestizo cattle at corte at $8 to 10, Lincoln sheep at 3 to 4, ordinary cattle 3 to 5, novillos for invernada at 14 to 16, cows at 5 to 7, capones for matadero, at 2 to 4.

The general meeting of the Hippodrome National Club was held on Thursday night, when Sr. Carlos F. Sidder was elected Syndic and Sres. Antonio Fonrouge, Jose L. Oliver and Antonio Echegaray were chosen to fill the vacancies on the Board of Directors. The profits of last year amounted to $83,039, in addition to $63,578 expended on buildings and furniture. The "Sport" commission produced $370,352; the entries of horses $129,720; the "entradas" and programmes $82,292; the amount distributed in prizes was $336,349. The capital amounts to $1,867,186.

The following figures (taken from Mr. J. J. Smith's book "Moneda Estranjera") shew the value of gold coins at to-day's premium of 143 o/o:—

Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine Company, limited.

This company is prepared to supply the Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machines, with their accessories, in any quantities. They are now coming into general use in Australia, where, during the past season upwards of 7,000,000 of sheep have been shorn by them; and it is confidently expected that over 20,000,000 will be shorn by them in that country this year. The following are some of their proved advantages over the ordinary shears:—

Estimated at per sheep per clip.
(1) Increase is quantity and value of wool (See testimonials).... 11d.
(2) Increased value of pelts owing to total absence of cuts 1
(3) Saving of 1 per cent. usual allowance for deaths resulting from cuts and bites 2½
(4) Saving of labor and time, as the work can be performed in half the time usually occupied with the old style of shearing..... 1½
Total per clip per sheep..... 16d.
(5) Total absence of suffering to the sheep.

These economies add enormously to the income of the Australian wool-growers, and are applicable relatively to sheep-farmers everywhere.

The Wolsley machines may be seen in actual work at the Agricultural Rural Exhibition at Palermo.

For further particulars apply to the agents, Messrs. Agar, Cross & Co., Calle Defensa 124 & 136, Buenos Ayres, where certificates and testimonials can be seen.

"Curative Paste"
BUCHANAN.
Colonia (B. O.), May 1890
Gentlemen—
Having recently accepted the Agency for the "Sale of Curative Paste" for this Republic, I have great pleasure in introducing this dip to your notice.
This dip has been found unrivalled by some of the largest Estancieros that have used it for some time past; and this great success has induced the manufacturer to bring it more prominently before the sheep-farming Republic.
As a cure of Scab it is the most effective, and as a preventive the most permanent that has ever been offered to the public. Scab CANNOT EXIST where "CURATIVE PASTE" is used.
As an economiser of time, labour and expense, it is decidedly the best; curings are less frequent, the necessity of extra men is avoided and consequently less expense incurred.
But in addition to this, we claim and can prove that sheep cured with this dip yield a vastly superior quality and greater quantity of wool than those cured with other dips.
These are advantages that a sheep-farmer cannot, and will not, overlook if he wishes to manage his animals profitably.
Try a sample and satisfy yourselves that in recommending "Curative Paste" to be the most effective, the safest and cheapest dip existing we do but claim that which is admitted by all who use it. (Vide testimonial.
Yours truly
ARTHUR JAS. KELLY.
